

ANALYZING POINT OF VIEW

Title of Selection: _____

Author: _____

1. Who is the narrator?
2. From which of the three points of view is the story told? (omniscient, first person, or third-person limited)
3. What does the narrator know that no one else could know?
4. What does the narrator not know?
5. What are the narrator's biases, if any?
6. How does the point of view affect the way you feel about the characters? (Does it help you identify with a character? Does it make you sympathize more with one character than another?)
7. Choose a different point of view from which the story could be told. How would the story change if this point of view were used?
